ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

The School of Legal Studies, Swami Vivekananda University organized a One-Day Workshop on “The Basic Functioning of Moot Court” with the objective of introducing students to the practical aspects of moot court proceedings and advocacy skills.

The workshop was designed to bridge the gap between classroom learning and courtroom practice, enabling students of B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), and LL.B. (Hons.) programs to develop core legal skills such as legal research, drafting, and oral advocacy.

The programme was conducted under the theme “From Classroom to Courtroom: The Art of Advocacy”, emphasizing experiential legal learning and professional skill development.

OBJECTIVES OF THE WORKSHOP

- To introduce students to the structure and functioning of moot court proceedings.
- To develop skills in legal research, drafting, and oral arguments.
- To enhance understanding of courtroom etiquette and advocacy techniques.
- To provide practical exposure to simulation-based legal learning.
- To prepare students for participation in intra and inter-university moot court competitions.
- To bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application of law.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The session commenced with an introduction to the objectives of the workshop, highlighting the importance of moot court training in legal education. The theme “From Classroom to Courtroom: The Art of Advocacy” was emphasized as a guiding principle for developing advocacy skills among law students.

TECHNICAL SESSIONS

The workshop included interactive sessions on:

- Basics of moot court structure and procedure
- Preparation of memorials (Plaintiff/Respondent)
- Techniques of oral advocacy and presentation
- Courtroom manners and professional conduct
- Evaluation criteria used in moot court competitions

Faculty members demonstrated practical aspects of moot court functioning through structured guidance and simulation-based discussion.

PARTICIPATION

Students from B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons.), and LL.B. (Hons.) actively participated in the workshop. The session witnessed enthusiastic engagement through mock demonstrations, query-based learning, and interactive discussions.

CONCLUSION

The workshop concluded successfully, achieving its objective of providing foundational knowledge of moot court practices. It significantly enhanced students’ understanding of advocacy skills and courtroom procedures. The session served as a stepping stone towards developing competent future legal professionals through experiential learning.
