1. Event Overview

The workshop on “Know Insurance For Yourself And For All For Safe And Sound Future” was organized by the Kolkata Insurance Institute in collaboration with Swami Vivekananda University, focusing on spreading awareness about the importance of insurance. The event aimed at educating students, particularly those in the Department of Optometry, about various insurance options available and how they can benefit both individuals and families for a secure future.

2. Key Speakers

The session featured two distinguished speakers who shared their knowledge and expertise on the topic:

Mr. Angshuman Roy

Senior Business Associate (SBA), LIC of India

Vice President, Kolkata Insurance Institute

Credentials: M.B.A. (Systems Management), FIII, Advanced Diploma in Life Underwriting, Diploma in Health Insurance

Mr. Debrup Chatterjee

Administrative Officer, National Insurance Company Limited

Credentials: M.Sc., B.Ed., FIII

Both speakers are experts in the insurance field, with extensive experience in life underwriting, health insurance, and general insurance services. They addressed various aspects of insurance, focusing on how it serves as a financial safety net for individuals and families.

3. Objectives of the Workshop

To raise awareness about the importance of insurance in ensuring financial security.

To educate participants on the different types of insurance policies, including life, health, and property insurance.

To explain the role of insurance in protecting against unexpected financial risks.

To guide attendees on choosing the right insurance policies tailored to individual needs.

To provide insights on the significance of insurance in the context of future financial planning.

4. Workshop Highlights

Introduction to Insurance: Mr. Angshuman Roy started the session by defining the basics of insurance and its crucial role in securing one's financial future. He stressed that insurance is not just a safety net but also an essential tool for long-term financial planning.

Types of Insurance: Both speakers discussed the various types of insurance policies available, such as life insurance, health insurance, and property insurance. Mr. Chatterjee explained the different features and benefits of each type, helping the audience understand their value in real-life scenarios.

Why Insurance is Important: The speakers elaborated on how insurance can mitigate financial risks. They highlighted how unexpected events like medical emergencies, accidents, or death could lead to significant financial burdens, and insurance helps alleviate such challenges by providing coverage.

Choosing the Right Insurance: Mr. Roy and Mr. Chatterjee provided practical advice on selecting insurance policies based on individual requirements. They discussed how to assess one's needs and how the right policy can provide peace of mind and financial stability.

Interactive Q&A Session: The session concluded with an interactive Q&A segment, where participants had the opportunity to ask questions related to their insurance concerns. Both speakers addressed several queries, providing deeper insights into complex insurance concepts.

5. Audience Participation

The workshop saw enthusiastic participation from students of the Department of Optometry and other university attendees. The students were particularly interested in learning about health insurance and its relevance in their professional and personal lives. The speakers ensured that the content was engaging and relevant to the audience, making the complex topic of insurance more accessible.

6. Conclusion

The workshop on “Know Insurance For Yourself And For All For Safe And Sound Future” was a highly informative and successful event. It equipped students and attendees with valuable knowledge on the importance of insurance and how it can protect against unforeseen financial risks. The collaboration between the Kolkata Insurance Institute and Swami Vivekananda University proved to be beneficial in bringing such an essential topic to the forefront.
