13	Results :
13.1	The final result of a candidate shall be determined on the basis of CGPA .
13.2	Grade Card shall be made as per grading system. Course-wise marks (Internal and End Semester Examination added together) will be converted into percentage of mark. Percentage of mark will be converted into Grade Letter and Grade Point. Credit and Grade point will be converted into Credit Point. Finally, Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) will be computed.
13.3	The Grade Card of a Semester shall be issued only after completion of that Semester.

(A)	Conversion of Marks into grade letter and grade point
	% of Marks	Letter Grade	Grade point
	91 and Above	O (Outstanding)	10
	81 - 90	A+ (Excellent)	9
	71 - 80	A (Very Good)	8
	61 - 70	B+ (Good)	7
	56 - 60	B (Above Average)	6
	51 - 55	C+ (Average)	5.5
	41 - 50	C (Below Average)	5
	Passed with 40	P (Pass)	4
	Below 40	F (Fail)	0
	Absent	Ab	0
	(B)	Computation of SGPA
Course		Credit	Grade Letter	Grade point	Credit Point
Course 1		3	A	8	3x8=24
Course 2		4	B+	7	4x7=28
Course 3		3	B	6	3x6=18
Course 4		4	B	6	4x6=24
TOTAL		14			94
SGPA : 94 / 14 = 6.71

(C) Computation of CGPA
Example
	Semester	Semester	Semester	Semester
	1	2	3	4
Credit	14	16	15	14
SGPA	6.7	6.3	6.6	6.7
Credit x SGPA	14x6.7= 94	16x6.3= 101	15x6.6= 99	14x6.7= 94
CGPA =	(94+101+99+94) / (14+16+15+14)
	= 388 / 59		= 6.57
(D) Conversion of SGPA/CGPA into Percentage of Marks:
	Ten (10) times of SGPA / CGPA
(E) Final Result / Grades Description
Semester GPA /	Alpha-Sign /		Result / Class
9.00 - 10.00	O (Outstanding)		Outstanding
8.00 - < 9.00	A+ (Excellent)		First Class Exemplary

14	PROVISIONS FOR REVIEW:
14.1	A candidate may apply for Post-publication Review (PPR) of his/her answer- script(s) in the prescribed form and manner and a submission of fees prescribed for the purpose within the date as per notification to be issued by the Controller of Examinations at the time of publication of result. Such applications must be checked and verified by the department(s) with regards to the eligibility of the candidate(s) applying for review. All such applications must be forwarded by the Head of the Department concerned.
14.2	There shall be no Post-publication Review of Practical Papers, Oral examinations and Project Work/Field Work, if any.
14.3	Incomplete and faulty application is liable to be rejected without assigning any reason or without any intimation to the candidate concerned.
14.4	Under no circumstances fees for Post-publication Review once paid be refunded
14.5	A student may apply for review of maximum two theoretical answer (Excluding AECC) scripts in the prescribed form provided he/she has secured a minimum grade P in theoretical part of all the courses separately not asked for review of the particular semester examination.
14.6	Post-Publication Review (PPR) and Post-Publication Scrutiny (PPS) of the Same paper(s) in a Subject/Group of Subjects shall not be allowed

14.7	Finalization of Review Results: If the marks awarded by Post-Publication Review Examiner in a Paper do not exceed the original award by more than 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the Review Examiner's award will be accepted as final marks in that Paper. If the increase of marks exceeds 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the answer script will be evaluated by a third examiner (external) and the final marks will be the average of the three examiners. However, if it is found that there was error in calculating total marks of the original award, the increase of marks to the full extent will be accepted as corrected original award of the candidate. If the marks awarded by Post-Publication Review Examiner in a Paper do not reduce the original award by more than 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the Review Examiner's award will be accepted as final marks in that Paper. If the decrease of marks exceeds 20% of the full marks in that Paper, the answer script will be evaluated by a third examiner (external) and the final marks will be the average of the three examiners. However, if it is found that there was error in calculating total marks of the original award, the change of marks to the full extent will be accepted as corrected original award of the candidate. Any addition or subtraction of marks as declared by the University after Post- Publication Review shall be treated as final and shall be binding on the candidate. No further application for consideration of Post-Publication Review result shall be entertained. The decrease in marks will not be accepted if such reduction results the failure of a successful candidate who has secured already qualifying grade prior to review.

17	BREACH OF DISCIPLINE BY ANY EXAMINEE IN CONNECTION WITH UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS :
17.1	The Centre-in-Charge of any University Examination held at a centre will, on his/her own or on the basis of reports received from the invigilator(s)/members of the visiting team as may be constituted by the Controller of Examinations and duly approved by the Vice-Chancellor expel a candidate from the examination hall debarring him/her from appearing in the examinations of the remaining subject(s)/paper(s), if the candidate is found copying or possessing any paper, book or such other incriminating material(s) or smuggling written answer scripts/loose sheets from outside. On expulsion, he/she will be debarred from appearing at the rest part of the examination and his/her entire examination will be treated as cancelled.
17.2	Signature(s) of each of the expelled candidates may be obtained on the incriminating document(s) found in his/her possession and the same must be attached to the main answer script(s). if a candidate refuses to put his/her signature on the incriminating document(s) the invigilator(s)/members of the visiting team will certify the matter and the Centre-in-Charge will take immediate action as in regulation 17.1 on the basis of the certificate/report of the room invigilator(s)/members of the visiting team.
17.3	If, however, in the judgment of the Centre-in-Charge, a candidate is found to have committed an offence of a more serious nature, e.g., impersonation, use of filthy languages, indisciplined behaviour, threatening the persons connected with the examination duties and such other activities inside and outside the examination hall/room, the Centre-in-Charge will expel the candidate debarring him/her from appearing in the examination(s) of the remaining subject(s)/paper(s) and send to the Controller of Examinations a list of such candidates along with their answer scripts and a detailed report on the circumstances leading to the action taken by the Centre-in-Charge in a separate packet for record and for placement before the Committee of Discipline for further action. In such cases as detailed in above paragraph the Committee of Discipline, duly constituted by the Vice-Chancellor may note the action, if already taken by the Centre-in-Charge, but will not lessen the penalty already given by the Centre-in-Charge. The Committee of Discipline, however, may recommend further penal action to be taken against such candidate(s). If the Centre-in-Charge, instead of taking any action against such a candidate, forward the case along with the detailed report the Committee of Discipline may take penal action as it may deem fit.

17.4	When the Centre-in-Charge expels any offending candidate from the examination hall, as referred to in the rules above, the order/notification regarding such expulsion shall forthwith be circulated in all the examination halls by the Centre-in-Charge. Such order/notification shall provide that the offending candidate shall be debarred from appearing in the remaining subject(s)/paper(s). Such order/notification should be pasted on the Notice Board and a copy of the same along with the answer scripts and other documents are to be sent to the Controller of Examinations for subsequent issuance of order/notification including order of cancellation of the entire examination of the candidate(s), to the concerned department for its implementation.
17.5	If the candidates are found to consult or talk with each other or change their scheduled seats or exchange answer-scripts/loose sheets etc. during an examination in spite of warnings by the Centre-in-Charge/room invigilator(s), the Centre-in-Charge shall report the matter in details to the University against the concerned candidates together with the relevant answer scripts for placement before the Committee of Discipline.
17.6	An examiner may forward to the Controller of Examinations of the University subject to an explanatory report along with the relevant answer script(s) of the candidate(s) for placement of the same before the Committee of Discipline if, in his/her judgment, the candidate/candidates has/have adopted unfair means in answering questions
17.7	If an examinee uses filthy languages against the Centre-in-Charge/Invigilators or Convener/Member(s) of the Visiting Teams or any person connected with the examination or resorts to indiscipline behaviour inside or outside the examination hall or undertakes any unfair means or violates the instructions for the examinees, the Centre-in-Charge may send his/her answer-script of that paper along with a report from the Invigilator(s) with his comment, if any. However, in such case, the examinee will be allowed to sit for the examination in the
17.8	Non-submission of scripts – If an examinee appears at the examination but does not submit his/her answer-script, the matter should be noted in the Attendance Sheet. A diary should be lodged on the day with the local police station. A report along with a copy of the said Diary and a statement from the Invigilator of the concerned examination hall must be sent by the Centre-in-Charge to the Controller of Examinations.
17.9	Torn scripts – In case of a script being willfully torn by a candidate, the fact should be noted in the Attendance Sheet(s) and a report should be sent by the Centre-in-Charge to the Controller of Examinations in a separate packet along with the torn script and a statement from the Invigilator of the concerned examination hall stating the circumstances leading to the incident.
17.10	Report on R.A. cases from any quarter should always be supported by documentary evidence or statement of the reporting concerned authority. Without such documentary evidence/statements disposal of the matter cannot be taken up.
17.11	On receipt of the report of malpractice in the examination, as referred to in above the University will direct the concerned candidate to appear before the Committee of Discipline and furnish an explanation in writing regarding the charges leveled against the candidate.

P.T.O.

17.12	If the Committee of Discipline is satisfied that the charge/ charges leveled against any candidate in terms of above mention rules is/ are true, it may recommend any one or multiple of the following actions:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Cancellation of examination of the candidate in the concerned paper 2. Cancellation of the entire examination of the candidate and if necessary also 3. Debarment of the candidate from appearing at the University examination for a specified period as it may deem fit according to the gravity of the offence(s) committed. If a candidate does not appear before the Committee of Discipline without assigning any reason, the Committee of Discipline may recommend any or all of the measure(s) as above, as it may deem fit, on the basis of available document(s) in absentia. 4. The Committee after giving due consideration to the report of the Centre-in-Charge and giving the candidate a hearing, if necessary, may recommend exoneration of a candidate from the charges leveled against him/her if in its judgment the candidate concerned is innocent.
17.13	The recommendations of the Committee of Discipline will need approval of the Vice-Chancellor before any action can be taken thereon. The Vice-Chancellor may, after considering the recommendations, pass such orders as he/she thinks fit. The Controller of Examinations will take action according to the recommendation of the Committee of Discipline, if approved by the Vice-Chancellor or as per orders of the Vice-Chancellor.
17.14	All questions arising in relation to the interpretation of these regulations, shall be referred to the Academic Council for decision and the decision of the University Council will be final and binding.
