Workshop Report: Film Fest 2025 at Swami Vivekananda University

The Film Fest 2025 was organized by the Multimedia and Animation Department of Swami Vivekananda University as a two-day immersive workshop and screening event. The festival featured curated student films, expert panel discussions, hands-on sessions on cinematography, sound design, editing, and animation techniques. Guest speakers from the film and media industry shared insights into film production workflows, career pathways, and the impact of digital platforms. The fest also included a short film competition judged by industry professionals, promoting peer learning and creative excellence.

Programme Outcome

Programme Outcome for Workshop Report: Film Fest 2025 at Swami Vivekananda University

Students gained exposure to the complete filmmaking process — from concept development to post-production. The workshop enhanced their understanding of scriptwriting, camera handling, editing, and animation integration. It also nurtured teamwork, critical analysis, and presentation skills. Participants walked away with valuable feedback, inspiration, and a stronger foundation for entering the film and media industries.

Conclusion

Conclusion for Workshop Report: Film Fest 2025 at Swami Vivekananda University

Film Fest 2025 was a highly successful initiative that empowered students to explore cinematic arts through both practice and professional mentorship. It reinforced the importance of cross-disciplinary learning within multimedia and animation and highlighted the university's commitment to cultivating the next generation of creative professionals through real-world engagement and artistic collaboration.
